Keep national party politics out of local government

A comment on the District Council Elections Results, 2016

8th May 2016 by admin

“We are delighted that all our four candidates retained the seats we fought at the recent District Council elections. We had the largest overall majority for many years and each of our candidates achieved very good personal majorities, particularly Mary Cooper in Village Ward which was especially targeted by the Conservatives after their win last year (the General Election year).

The detailed results were as follows and profiles of your new Councillors appear elsewhere on this site”

What the Ashtead Independents say:

Election letter from Mary Cooper

Electors in Village Ward will have received a letter from Ashtead Independent candidate Mary Cooper within the last few days. A copy of this letter follows for reference

It has been brought to our notice that this letter failed to display the required election “imprint” as follows:

Printed by: Surrey Litho, Units 48 & 49 Bookham Industrial Park, off Church Road, Great Bookham, KT23 3EU

Promoted by Roy Ronald Guy, 26 Cray Avenue, Ashtead, Surrey KT21 1QX

On behalf of the candidate Mary Cooper, Oakwood, Farm Lane, Ashtead, Surrey KT21 1LR

We apologise for this omission and to any elector who has been misled or inconvenienced by it.
